 CONTINUING EDUCATION
THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

ENJOY A FUN SUMMER FLING

This summer is a great time to do more than just flirt with that Academic Noncredit class you've been eyeballing.

So many attractive classes to choose from. Dozens of subject areas available. It's totally casual. No grades. No tests. No stress.

Experience counts. Each class taught by seasoned University of Utah professors. You don't have to dig too deeply into your wallet. On average, each class costs 70% less than if you were taking the course for credit.

It's an open relationship. You don't even need to be a matriculated University of Utah student to enroll—anyone 18 and over can sign up.

You never know, your summer fling just might progress into a more serious relationship in the fall and beyond.

Experience the Rewards of Learning!

Outdoor Adventure classes, pg. 3

Nature is fuel for my soul. Spending time outdoors allows me to disconnect from my phone and reconnect with the wild places I love. And there's no better summer playground for adventures like canoeing, canyoneering, and paddleboarding than right here in Utah

FINDING BEAUTY

Shooting landscapes gets me outside to some of the most awe-inspiring places in the world, like Bryce Canyon, but my time out in nature has also taught me to seek for simple beauty in my local surroundings where a lone tree, curve of a path, wandering insect, or simple reflection can make a stunning subject.

MAKING A SPLASH

Swimming fires up more of my body's major muscle groups than any other form of cardio exercise. Running and biking pretty much utilize my quads and hamstrings, while swimming engages my upper body and core, as well as my legs. Plus, my posture has improved and my back has never felt better.
