
Marcie's Movie Club

OSHER 325-001

Dates: Mondays: August 31 – October 12 (Skipping Labor Day Holiday)

Time: 12:00 pm – 2:30 pm

Location: Online via Zoom

Instructor: Marcie Collett, Associate Director, Development, Salt Lake Film Society

marciecollett@sfs.org

Course Description:

Description: Each week, Marcie's movie club will watch and then discuss a film offered by the Salt Lake Film Society through <https://sfsathome.org/> or by another platform. Class fee includes streaming charge for viewing each film, but if a class must be missed, students will be offered a code to watch the film on their own. During the current isolation and fear felt during COVID-19 and social protests, class members will connect with one another over quality cinema and also connect with their fellow global citizens through films from around the world. As Roger Ebert noted, movies are an empathy machine!

THANK YOU! On behalf of Salt Lake Film Society (SLFS), we thank you for committing your Monday afternoons to our movie club!

Course Overview:

- Each film is 90-120 minutes long, preceded by a brief intro and followed by a ~15-30-minute discussion
- SLFS films available at <https://sfsathome.org/>
- If you must miss a Monday club, Marcie will provide a code so that you may view the film
